

Battle of the Books Reading List

Our school will be participating in Battle of the Books this year. Battle of the Books is a voluntary reading incentive program for students in 4-6th grade. The purpose is to encourage students to read great books and have fun while competing with peers. Teams will be formed next year and they will compete against other teams. Questions will be asked from the books. The following is a list of books that will be used for those in 4th grade.
